INTRODUCTION

As we enter the New Year it is but natural for us to take a retrospective glance at the work of the year that is past. As individuals, if we do this with a heart that is sincere and desirous for the best in life, we can profit much by both the mistakes and achievements of the past, learning to avoid the one and striving to outdo the other. As a Church it is also well that we look back and see what, under the blessing of God, we were enabled to do during the year. A glance at the total membership on page 77 will reveal, upon comparison with the figures of last year, that our church is enjoying a steady if not phenomenal growth. While the net gain over last year is only about 250, this does not represent the complete gain, for in checking up this year we found a few congregations that were counted twice, which reduced the figures of one conference by 490. Both of our foreign missions have also had an increase during the year although they too showed no unusual advances. We thank the Lord for this steady, substantial growth.

The reader will also find a summary of the funds contributed to missions and relief during the year. This is classified both by months and by funds for the various fields and purposes. It will be noted that the total amount given is more than $9,000.00 less than last year's figures. A further comparison of figures will reveal, however, that the greatest difference is in annuities, and that the amounts given for actual mission work are not very strikingly different from those of last year, although some funds received more and others less. When we recall that the Educational Endowment Fund received over $70,000 in cash and pledges, most of which was contributed during 1928, we can see that our people gave with their usual liberality during the year. We are glad that as a church we are honoring the Lord with our substance.

Four new missionaries were sent to foreign fields during the year, two to India and two to South America. Ground was broken for a new station in India and work is progressing on the buildings. The opening of this work at Dondi Lohore is something for which our India missionaries have been praying for years, and they are rejoicing in the fact that the Lord has heard their prayers and that a new section is now open to the teaching of the Gospel.

In our home fields advances have also been made. The beginning of 1928 marked the opening of the work at Mill Run, a needy field near Altoona, Pa., which now has a chapel and enjoys religious privileges that had previously been denied to that section. Work has also been opened at Marietta, Pa., where the Eastern Board has purchased a church which had been abandoned by another denomination. Work was also begun on a new church building at Tampa, Fla., which will be completed early in 1929. We praise the Lord for thus opening up new fields of service in the home land. There are many other needy fields that are waiting for the Gospel light.

Once again we print the Calendar of Events which gives some of the most important happenings of the year. You will notice that many of our ministers and other church leaders answered the last summons during the year. On the other hand you will see records of ordinations in which younger people were chosen to fill the ranks that were vacated by those who passed on to the other world. And thus the work goes on, and may we in the year 1929 continue to labor faithfully and gladly for the Master, for "the night cometh when no man can work."

REVIEW OF THE WORK OF THE MENNONITE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHARITIES FOR THE YEAR 1928

By S. C. Yoder, Secretary

The past year was not one of outstanding achievements. There were no striking advances, no launching of large movements, no great losses or reverses. It was rather a year of steadiness during which the net gain will compare favorably with other years of more outstanding achievements.

The Home Field

Early in the year the Mennonite Hospital at La Junta, Colorado was completed and occupied. This institution is the outgrowth of the work at the Sanitarium and City Hospital which was begun in that community years ago. The new institution is dedicated to the "Sick in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost" and the prayer of the church is that it may be to many a fountain of spiritual as well as physical life. This gives to the Church a modern hospital, well equipped and furnished, which it is hoped will be a blessing to the community in which it stands, as well as to the Church as a whole.

In connection with this institution is conducted a Training School for Nurses from which the Church as a whole will perhaps receive more benefit than from the hospital itself. It furnishes a place where those of our sisters who desire to enter the nursing profession may secure their training under the influence of those of their own faith. This is certainly to be appreciated and the Nurse's Training School at La Junta deserves the prayers and support of the entire church.

No new missions or institutions were opened under the General Board during the past year. Several District Mission Boards have considered new ventures and at least one new station was opened. This one is located at Iowa City, Iowa, and is under the direction of the Iowa-Nebraska Conference.

Rural Work

The great rural section in the Southern Highlands is still under consideration and the movement toward opening work in that section is beginning to take on definite form. It is to be hoped that before many years go by the Mennonite Church will be among the denominations that is bringing the Gospel to these people who are more or less isolated from the rest of the country by mountain barriers, and will be the means of bringing many of them to the Lord. The field is ready, the opportunities are ripe, and the advantage should not be let go by.

The Foreign Field

News from the foreign field indicate the usual round of problems that follow when the Gospel is preached in the strongholds where Satan is. Reports show some increase in membership in both India and South America. The work is growing.

Two new missionaries, Bro. and Sister Snyder from Ontario, sailed for South America last October. Bro. and Sister Lantz also returned to the field via Spain where they spent some time looking over the work of evangelical Christianity and profiting by the experience of those who work in that land as well. Bro. S. Jay Hostetler and wife accompanied Sister Mary Wenger to India last November and are now on the field. The prayers of the Church should by all means follow these people as they go to their tasks for the Lord among a strange people in a strange land.

From South America comes the pathetic appeal for an orphanage for the multitude of homeless children of that land. Since the state makes no provision for this kind of work it remains for the forces of Christianity to take up the work.

A fund for this purpose has been started and is now being held until it increases sufficiently to justify the Board to undertake the construction of a suitable building.

The India Mission is steadily increasing her activities and is proceeding along lines that have for their end the salvation of souls, and the extension of the kingdom of God. One new mission station—the Hope Evangelistic—was opened the last year. Construction work for the building was begun in February. Through the generosity of the Woman's Missionary Society funds have also become available for the construction of a new Science Hall for the High School at Dhamtari.

The Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Board was held this year at the Walnut Creek Church in Holmes County, Ohio. This meeting is growing in size and importance and next to the Mennonite General Conference it is perhaps the most largely attended of our general church meetings.

The Annual Report shows the volume of business transacted, and the nature of the work done both at home and abroad. When one considers that most of the aggressive activities of the Church, such as the mission, publication, and educational activities have sprung up within the lifetime of men who are now living the progress is gratifying. This is no time to stop, but rather a time for progress, for prayer, and for thanksgiving for what the Lord has made possible through our church.

The Outlook

Perhaps the best way to judge what is to be is to judge by what has been. A number of disturbing factors have entered into the work but the situation is not hopeless, but gives promise of better things ahead. The unsettled state of affairs in the religious world is affecting us as well as others. All Christians of the present generation need to be alert lest the spirit of harshness that is abroad in the world will be imported into their ways of thinking and the cause of the Lord be made to suffer. There is a need for the Church to strengthen her forces all along the line in the simple ways of Christian living as well as to deepen her faith and respect for the Word of God.

Every year worldliness claims much of what belongs to the Lord and thereby impoverishes the treasury of the Church. Our giving has not increased greatly during the past year. Perhaps we can not look for a great increase until people learn to curtail their expenditures for things that add nothing to their comfort, convenience, or benefit.

There is a hopeful side, however. People are not only giving of their money but many are giving themselves. A generation is rising that was taught to give from their earliest childhood. This will not fail to bring results if their interest in the cause of the Lord can be maintained after they grow to manhood and womanhood. Older people are realizing that the kingdom of God does not consist of meat and drink, and many other things of passing value. They realize that it consists rather of righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. The great hope of the future lies in a deepened faith and experience among the children of God. There is little to be expected from the world, or the nominal professors of Christianity. They will likely go on in their revelry in sin, and glory in their own things, but the signs of springtime appear among the children of the Most High. Among them there is a dissatisfaction with their own experience. There is an unrest and a search for the deeper things of God which can but result in enriched lives, larger experiences, and greater fruitfulness.

WORK OF THE EASTERN MISSION BOARD FOR 1928

By Orie O. Miller

The Eastern Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities (organized in 1914 and incorporated in 1916, under authority of the Lancaster Conference) has 20 members. Each bishop can appoint from his district one Mission Board member for every thousand church members, or fraction thereof. Besides these appointees there are six members elected at large by the Board itself—two being so elected each year for a term of three years. All but three of the present Board are lay members.

The Board has regular quarterly meetings in January, April, July, and October, at which times all major business is transacted. The Lancaster Board of Bishops meets with the Mission Board at all these meetings —the bishops sharing in the discussions. Interim and routine business is transacted by an Executive Committee of five, composed of the Board officials and a fifth member. This Committee meets as occasion demands.

Home Missions

The Philadelphia Home Mission, the Welsh Mt. Mission and Good Samaritan Home, Columbia Mission, Reading Mission, Cocalico Rural Station, Oak Shade Rural Station, all established previous to 1928, have been continued throughout the year. The Gospel has been faithfully proclaimed, souls have been born into the Kingdom, and progress has been made in building up the work at all these points.

The preaching station and evangelistic efforts carried on in the laboring camps at Conowingo dam, (Conowingo, Md.) for 18 months while the dam was in building came to a close in the spring of 1928 with the dam's completion.

The Rural S. S. Mission Station at Pleasant Retreat Schoolhouse (near Ephrata, Pa.) opened in the spring of this year, had to be closed in October. It is hoped that this point may be reopened in the coming spring.

New stations opened and active as the year closes are:

1. Tampa, Fla., 1202 32nd Ave. Bro. C. B. Byers began activities here more than a year ago. At his urgent request and upon recommendation of Bro. John B. Senger, this station came under the Board's direction in October. Property has been purchased on which a church building is being erected.

2. Marietta, Pa. The workers from Columbia started Sunday school in an abandoned Brethren Church building in April. Later regular preaching services and the other usual activities were provided. The Board at its October meeting purchased the property where services were held and gave this station regular status.

3. Fisherville, Pa. (about 30 miles north of Harrisburg). Workers from the Slate Hill congregation opened Sunday school and preaching services here at about midsummer. The nucleus of the effort is a group of Virginia Mt. Mission families who recently settled near Fisherville. The Board assumed charge in October.

4. The congregation near Washington, D. C., had charge of a series of tent meetings during September in the city itself. A Sunday school and preaching station about 25 miles northwest of Washington has been served from here also. The Board has one regularly appointed worker serving in Brentwood, Md., and Washington, D. C., but as yet this cannot be designated a regular station.

5. Lancaster Vine Street Mission has for some years been operated by the Lancaster Chestnut Street congregation. A recent congregational counsel recommends its transfer back to the Board. A change in location to another section of Lancaster is in prospect for this mission.

About thirty full-time and a larger number of part-time workers take care of these various efforts.

Foreign Missions

This Board has no direct foreign work but supports the India and South American Missions of the General Board. One missionary in India, three in South America, besides a number of native workers, teachers, widows, and orphans are guaranteed regular support.

The outstanding feature of the year affecting the Foreign Mission support was the decision of Lancaster spring Conference to withhold further encouragement of the India work—pending fuller information and satisfaction in reference to Mission policies in vogue there. A meeting for discussion of points in question was held in November with a special Committee from the General Board. Progress was made in clearing up mooted questions. It is expected that the coming spring Conference will reverse its earlier decision.

Relief and Charities

Two shipments of new and used clothing (one in March—the second in November) were made to Canada for aid of needy Mennonite immigrants there. The total weight of clothing and shoes so shipped was about 14,000 pounds.

A shipment of new clothing valued at $325.00 was shipped to India in October for the use of the Boy's Orphanage.

The Board's Emergency Relief Fund was drawn on immediately after the Porto Rican and Florida storm disasters. A total of $1044.93 was forwarded through the American Red Cross for the sufferers.

$1000.00 was also given from this fund for Canadian Immigrant Relief.

Finances

The following table shows the monthly and comparative receipts for 1927 and 1928 and the total portion each month forwarded to the General Board for Foreign Missions.

	Total Receipts 1927	Total Receipts 1928	For Foreign Missions
Jan.	$6099.55	$3756.13	$ 919.50
Feb.	4251.15	4102.20	923.74
March	1436.93	5659.24	938.31
April	4344.37	5255.23	904.15
May	5088.23	2925.10	1259.62
June	2579.09	2065.48	632.85
July	5201.48	4846.12	1226.18
August	2558.97	2210.25	732.52
Sept.	1125.93	1821.76	679.04
Oct.	3463.25	5023 10	712.08
Nov.	2814.71	2773.97	624.31
Dec.	4198.81	3200 00	2521.00
Total	$43162.67	$43638.58	$12073.30

The above table indicates that there was an increase in total gifts to Mission work of about $500.00 in 1928 over 1927. The portion for Foreign Mission Work, however, was decreased by a total of almost $1700.-00 when compared with last year's receipts for this purpose.

Special Features

In April of each year occurs the Board's Annual Meeting. This is a public meeting of two days' duration, and is largely inspirational and informational in character. It also serves as the Annual get-together meeting of all workers, Board members, and supporting constituency.

A one day session during one of the Fall months is especially arranged for the Superintendents and workers of the Sunday schools of the Conference District. Much of this meeting is left for open and free discussion of Sunday school workers' problems—the rest to inspirational addresses along these same lines.

The Associated Sewing Circles, to which organization about forty circles belong, holds semiannual meetings in January and July. The orders and needs for the six months ahead are there presented and allocated. These meetings are largely attended.

The Missionary Messenger—monthly publication—organ of the Board—serves as the Board's publicity medium and the means of keeping unified, the aims and policies of workers, Board, and supporters. The Messenger is mailed to about 1800 homes of the Conference District.

The Board is keenly conscious of its human limitations—grateful to the Heavenly Father for His guidance and manifest blessings on the efforts to make Him known and lift Him up, and desirous to continue a submissive agent of the Church in her Kingdom building program.

THE MINISTRY OF HEALING

By Dr. C. D. Esch

God created man as body, soul and spirit, thus making him a triune being. These three sides or phases of man's being are so intimately connected with each other that it is impossible to touch one part of man's life without also affecting the other as well.

The body is likened to the house in which man lives. This is true, but the relation of man to his body is much more intimate and vital than the relation of an owner to his earthly house. A man may leave his house for longer or shorter periods of time, and the house will suffer in no way whatever. However if the spirit of man leaves the body, his house, that house at once falls into decay, and only by the miraculous power of the Creator will he again be able to enter his former abode and take possession of it.

The question is often asked, Where is the seat of life in the body? Is it in the brain or is it in the heart? We know that both these organs are very important centers of vitality, which cannot be greatly disturbed without causing death. God says that the life is in the blood, and we know that every living portion of the body, even to the tiniest, most distant extremity is supplied and permeated with this life-giving fluid. The slightest injury often causes a loss of blood which means the loss of life in exact proportion to the amount of blood that is lost.

It has been found that the most effective way of treating persons suffering with anemia (which means either a lack in quantity or low quality of blood) is by transfusing blood obtained from a healthy person into the blood stream of the person suffering with anemia. In other words one person gives a certain amount of his life and vital force to another person who is in need of that force.

While Jesus was here on earth in human form, He taught many things, both by precept and example, regarding the value of the human body in the sight of God. He states that two sparrows are sold for a farthing, or in another place five sparrows are sold for two farthings (an extra sparrow being thrown in) yet not even that extra sparrow goes unnoticed of our Father, but "Ye are of more value than many sparrows." also "The very hairs of your head are all numbered." Would it be possible to imagine more careful concern on the part of our Father for the bodies of His children?

Again He compares man with a sheep and says, "How much then is a man better than a sheep?" or again, "The body is more than raiment." The Apostle Paul, in speaking of the human body as the temple of the Holy Ghost, says, "If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy." Our bodies are to be kept holy, places fit for the indwelling of the Spirit of God. They need to be kept under the control of the indwelling Spirit of God, free from disease and sin.

Jesus showed by His example that He was concerned for the bodies of men. About three-fourths of all the miracles He performed were wrought to relieve human suffering. Many of the diseases healed were diseases of the mind in which the body was affected as well. He had compassion on the multitudes and fed them with natural as well as spiritual bread. He healed many at different times, the details of which are lacking, the writers as in Matt. 8:16, simply stating that they brought many that were tormented with devils, and that were sick and He healed them. The writer also definitely states that in this is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah which says, "Himself took our infirmities and bear our sicknesses." Some would say that this refers to our spiritual ills only, but the inspired writer here definitely states that it also refers to bodily suffering.

One could not imagine Jesus or His apostles as going about and teaching the glad tidings of the Kingdom of God without being concerned about the physical sufferings of the needy multitudes. In fact Jesus definitely commands His disciples to heal the sick, etc., as they go preaching the message of salvation.

Again, Jesus used His power over bodily ills to illustrate His power over spiritual afflictions. When the people brought Him the man sick of the palsy He said, "Son, thy sins be forgiven thee," and then to demonstrate that He could forgive sins He did what could be seen with the natural eyes, He healed the man's body, thus demonstrating that He was also able to forgive sins.

As Jesus had compassion on the afflicted multitudes of Palestine 1900 years ago, even so He has compassion on the great unnumbered multitudes that to-day are groaning under terrible physical afflictions as well as spiritual diseases. No missionary going to a foreign land like India can go out without being concerned about the physical diseases which the multitudes are so severely afflicted with, hence the need of the medical missionary and his hospitals, etc.

India at times has a very trying climate. All persons going there from Europe or America have to adapt themselves to trying conditions, where severe and dangerous diseases are prevalent. Our church has in India a family of nearly 50 missionaries and children. For the health of these it is necessary to have the medical missionary, both doctor and nurse. The health of this group of people living in a foreign country under trying circumstances is a very important item both to the missionary and his friends and supporters in the home land.

Then there are those who have accepted Christ and form the Christian community, which in our Indian Church makes a community of nearly 2000 souls (including the children of Christian families who have not yet been baptized). These people meet much opposition to their Christian way of living from the people around them. These Christians need to be supplied with medical aid and advice in times of sickness, for there is no more effective time for the tempter to come to people than when they are sick, especially when they have always been used to making special offerings to the gods or having special prayers to idols and priests, and resorting to heathenish charms and other practices on such occasions. The medical missionary can easily demonstrate that God will bless sensible treatment and care with cleanliness, proper food, etc., to the recovery of many. He can easily demonstrate that by vaccination and other treatment smallpox, which the superstitious Hindu believes is a visitation of the smallpox goddess, can be cured, as it is a natural infection by a natural disease germ, and has nothing to do with any special god or goddess. What is true of smallpox is true of many other diseases.

Our mission is in India to build up a strong Church of Christ. This cannot be done with people that are diseased, crippled, and weak. Hence we are out to make people strong physically as well as spiritually. Hence we are carefully examining the Christian children, those in our orphanages and schools and doing all we can to eliminate the diseases which they have inherited or acquired, that they may be as strong as possible.

Then there are the vast unevangelized multitudes who are in the hands of many merciless charlatans who both rob and deceive them when they are sick.

The people of our Indian Mission field are weak by nature, this being due to the climate which is depressing. Many are born weak because of early marriages, sexual excesses, etc. Then they become an easy prey to venereal diseases, malaria, and other severe and debilitating diseases. Lack of proper food, and lack of the right kinds of food, with unhygienic conditions generally, linked up with dense ignorance and superstition results in a class of people that are simply groaning under the terrible burden of human suffering and affliction.

To these we come with a message of salvation, doing as well as we can as Jesus commanded, "As ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand, heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils; freely ye have received, freely give."

So the missionary has his hospital where he treats the missionary, the Indian Christian, and the non-Christian, where he preaches the Gospel to the afflicted as he lives and works among them. He takes with him remedies for the sick as he goes to the villages to preach. He sees the sick in their homes where he brings a message of hope and cheer. He has a home in which he feeds, clothes, and treats the afflicted, despised leper. For, you know, Jesus said we are to remember them specially. He now has a remedy that also helps those suffering with leprosy, so that the missionary who goes out with the message of salvation from sin also goes with all the latest human inventions and remedies which, under God, he is able to use and combine in this ministry of healing.

God has greatly blessed the work so that new stations have been opened. Many multitudes come to the hospitals and dispensaries, to the tents, and roadside, and bazaar clinics that are held for physical relief. These same afflicted people with their friends also have the blessed privilege of meeting the great Physician. May the Mennonite Church more fully realize her opportunity, and the great blessing she can be to the world through this effective method of service for her Lord, i. e., the ministry of healing.

"There can be no alternative manner of regarding the Son of God, for even as we accept or reject Christ the Son of God do we accept or reject God the Father."

MISSION WORK IN ARGENTINA DURING 1928

By T. K. Hershey.

The year 1928 has been a busy one for the missionaries of the Mennonite Mission. Due to the absence of the Lauvers and the Lantzes the strength of the remaining force was taxed to the limit.

The arrival of Bro. and Sister Snyder and the soon-expected one of Bro. and Sister Lantz has greatly encouraged the workers and all are looking forward to accomplishing great things in 1929. Some changes in the location of workers have become necessary and were made during the year.

Since it is impossible to train for missionary activities young people who have had only First and Second Grade work, the missionaries decided it best to give such the necessary Grade preparation before taking up entire Bible work. Missionaries' children, members' children and all others who may desire it will be admitted also.

Accordingly, it was unanimously decided that Brethren Shank and Litwiller with their families move to Pehuajo, the former to take charge of the Grade work and assist in general Mission work, and the latter to have charge of the congregation and of the Bible School. The Hershey family is living in Trenque Lauquen. Bro. Hershey has charge of the congregation and general oversight of the Orphanage which is located there.

The Orphanage is worthy of the prayers and support of the entire Church. Eternity will reveal the good accomplished in their daily Bible drills and general religious training. Sisters Hallman and Gamber have done a noble work with the eighteen children in the Orphanage. In their absence Bro. and Sister Snyder will live in the Orphanage, being assisted by Sister Anita Cavadore, a worker for nearly eight years in Trenque Lauquen.

The Printing Plant, also, has done its bit in helping to bring silent messages to people who do not frequent the Church house for worship or to seek salvation. Thousands of pieces of literature have been circulated since we have the Printery. In the twenty months that we have been running the printing press, we have done outside work to the amount of 4,410.90 pesos. This, while not all profit, greatly helped to defray the expenses of the Printery. At this time we wish to thank the donors and regular contributors for both the Printing Press and the Orphanage. May God bless you all for your large-heartedness.

If space would permit, it doubtless would be interesting to our readers to know of the activities and statistics of the Church, Sunday School, Kindergarten and Native Bible Readers' experiences—the zeal and enthusiasm of some and the discouraging problems of others. Much of this will be presented in our Annual Report to the Church.

Suffice it to say that there are evil forces at work and some have been enticed by the world and worldly things to turn back. The reaction is very much marked this year. But nowhere do we read that we are responsible for such. We all want to be shepherds, and to do so we need the prayers of the entire Church. " Prayer changes things." Do you believe this, Brother, Sister? Then practice intercessory prayer during 1929, and pray definitely for the Argentine Church.

Trenque Lauquen, Argentina.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? And your labor for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Isa. 55:2.

OPENING OF THE WORK AT MILL RUN: A BRANCH WORK OF THE ALTOONA MISSION

By Joseph M. Nissley

Mill Run is a neighborhood located three miles north of the Mennonite Gospel Mission at 2504 Fourth Ave., Altoona, Pa. A hard surfaced road follows a stream of water (Mill Run, which gives the place its name) which flows through a narrow valley, where are fifty-one homes with a population of 252 people. These families, on account of the high rent in Altoona, have bought themselves plots of ground and have built small houses. The men work in the railroad shops and haul ashes for their living. These people were without any religious opportunities.

The work was born from convictions the writer and wife received through a stirring message (Extending the Borders) heard at the Mennonite General Mission Board meeting held at Milford, Nebr., in the spring of 1927.

We returned to our place of labor with the burden resting upon our hearts that perhaps a community within our reach does not have Gospel privileges. We laid the burden before our coworkers and, making it a definite matter of prayer, soon heard that there was a place at Mill Run that had no religious opportunities. We at once started an investigation and found these conditions: 37 Catholic professors, about half of whom are true to their faith; 60 Protestants, about half worthy of bearing the name Christian; 81 children above the age of 10 years; 84 adults that were living in sin. These folks just pleaded that some one come and bring the Gospel. Even the unconverted said, "Our boys and girls are growing up like heathen" The community looked with favor upon opening up Gospel work and promised to attend and send their children to Sunday School, if there was an opportunity given to do so in the community.

Mill Run Chapel

We at once began to seek a place that we might hold services. We found two schoolhouses side by side. We inquired of the school board as to whether they would allow us to have one of them to hold religious services. After waiting anxiously for three months the reply came,

"You cannot have the schoolhouse to hold services." This was a great disappointment to us.

We then took the matter up with the Local Board of the Mission. They suggested that we present the same before the Mission Board of the Southwestern Pennsylvania Conference District, which met in connection with the fall conference at the Stahl Congregation, Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 10, 1927. This conference looked favorably upon opening work at this place. A committee was appointed of three brethren: Aaron Loucks and C. B. Shoemaker, Scottdale, Pa., and C. A. Graybill, Martinsburg, Pa., who with the Local Board of the Altoona Mission were to investigate the proposed field. The committee appointed investigated the field and found a needy community, but could find no building suitable or available to hold services, and there being no funds on hand to purchase land and erect a building, they decided to drop it for the present.

But a prayer-hearing God in His great love and kindness to His children and lost souls was watching over all. In the meantime He moved two brethren to inquire as to the progress of the Mill Run work. They stated, "We will start the work by pledging with $100.00 each." This gave the work a new start. This took place about the beginning of November, 1927. The Executive committee of the Mission Board at once authorized Bro. Joseph M. Nissley, Supt. of the Altoona Mission, to solicit a few congregations for funds and bring his report to the Annual All Day Mission Meeting of the District Mission Board, which was held at the Kauffman Congregation near Davidsville, Pa. Nov. 19, 1927. At this meeting the proposed opening of work at Mill Run was thoroughly discussed in the light of the funds solicited and available. An urgent appeal was made at this meeting and sufficient funds were raised to purchase a plot of ground and erect a building. A building Committee was appointed, Brethren Aaron Loucks, Joseph M. Nissley, C. A. Graybill, who were authorized to proceed at once to purchase a lot and erect a building at the earliest possible time.

A plot of ground with a frontage of eighty feet along the road, and with a depth of seventy-five feet was purchased on Nov. 21. The foundation of the building was begun Nov. 23. A frame building 20 by 30 feet was erected on a concrete block foundation. The building was completed and was dedicated Jan. 2, 1928. Bro. J. A. Brilhart, Scottdale Lumber dealer, furnished the lumber cut out to order, and Bro. C. A. Brilhart furnished the hardware and finishing material at a reasonable cost. The building is equipped with electric lights, seats, heated with a Heatrola heater. The walls are papered and the room is divided off with curtains to take care of the Sunday-school classes. The cost of the Building and plot of ground was $1200.00. It was dedicated free of debt.

Dedication services were held all day Jan. 2, 1928. Bro. J. A. Ressler of Scottdale, Pa., preached the dedication sermon, followed by a number of speakers of the conference district. The day's meeting closed by an evangelistic sermon by Bro. Joshua B. Zook, Allensville, Pa. These services were followed by evangelistic meetings conducted by Joseph M. Nissley each evening for two weeks. The meetings were well attended and the interest was good. A number of children attended the evening services, so we had children's services prior to the sermon. There were eight adult confessions during these meetings. Evangelistic sermons were preached each Sunday evening for awhile and the results were thirty-five confessions. We at once started an instruction class for the converts on Friday evening and gave thorough instructions, as these folks knew nothing about the Bible Doctrines and the importance of being obedient to them. In these instructions we found out that some had been divorced and had remarried. Also some of the parents would not let the children that confessed Christ unite with the Church. On May 20 the first members were received into church fellowship when eighteen were baptized. Services were in charge of Brethren Aaron Loucks, Scottdale, and J. N. Durr, Martinsburg. It surely was a day of rejoicing and one that will be long remembered.

Sunday school was opened Sunday, Jan. 8, at 2:15 P. M. One hour before the stated time there were twenty-five on hand. They kept on coming until by the time of the opening of the school there were seventy-two present. There is now an enrolment in Sunday school of 85; average attendance for the year 70. Besides Sunday school the services are Bible Study on Wednesday, cottage prayer meeting on Friday, children's meeting every Sunday evening at 7:15, followed by a sermon at 7:45.

During August 1927, evangelistic services were held in a tent. In connection with these services a ten-day Summer Bible school was held in charge of Bro. Milo Kauffman, Hesston, Kans. The meetings and school were marked with good interest. A few souls confessed Christ. Communion services were held Sunday, Nov. 11, in charge of Bro. J. N. Durr, Martinsburg, and O. N. Johns, Canton, Ohio.

At the District Mission Board Meeting held Aug. 6, at Allensville, Pa., it was decided that the Mill Run work should be under supervision of the Administration of the Altoona Mission. Bro. and Sister John Slabaugh are living in the community and assisting in the work. The board renders part support for their service. The outlook for the work is encouraging but it is not without its drawbacks and problems. We beg an interest in your prayers in behalf of the Lord's work in this part of His vineyard.

EASTERN MENNONITE SCHOOL

By Chester K. Lehman

With grateful hearts do we state that the blessing of the Lord has rested on the Eastern Mennonite School. The direction and guidance of the Holy Spirit has been manifested in many ways, as a survey of her work, her life and activities, problems and future aims will show.

The Student Body

A glance over the student body while assembled in Chapel service gives one a picture of approximately one hundred sixty fine young people, among the best in the Eastern arm of the Church. By states and provinces Virginia sends seventy-three, West Virginia one, Michigan three, Delaware two, Florida one, Tennessee one, Pennsylvania sixty-one, Ohio ten, Maryland five, Indiana one, Alberta one, and Ontario three. Twelve are enrolled in the Elementary Bible Course, thirty-three in the Advanced Bible and Junior College, one hundred fifteen in the High School, and two in the Eighth Grade. For three years the enrollment has been practically the same although there has been a slight increase of college students.

The Special Bible Term has been very well patronized, last year's enrollment of one hundred three being the largest in the history of the School. It is our hope that there will be an increasing number of young people who, being unable to go to school for a full session, will avail themselves of this opportunity for extending their knowledge of the Scriptures.

The Faculty

In order to provide adequate educational facilities an increased faculty of well trained brethren and sisters has been built up. Such a corps of teachers is not picked up in a year's time. A teacher in a church school must have a unique combination of qualifications. He must, first of all, pass the religious test and then he must measure up in scholastic attainments. We are glad that such a combination is possible and that there are consecrated brethren and sisters with high scholastic attainments who are faithful members of the Church and willing to serve the Church at a great financial sacrifice.

Including the President there are thirteen regular members of the Faculty and three assistants. Four of these are ministers, ten are college graduates, five having completed graduate courses leading to an advanced degree. Almost all the teachers have had from three to twelve years' successful teaching experience.

Among the Faculty are graduates of the following institutions: Hesston, Goshen, Bridgewater, Elizabethtown, Franklin and Marshall, University of Virginia, Harvard, and Princeton Theological Seminary.

Scope of Work

Two curricula are offered in the Bible School; the Elementary Course and the Advanced Course. The former is conducted on high-school levels and the latter on college. The following courses were taught last year or are being taught this year. Elementary Bible: Old Testament History and Geography, New Testament History and Geography, Old Testament Book Study (Part I), New Testament Book Study (Parts I and II), Bible Introduction, Bible Doctrine, Personal Work. Advanced Bible: Biblical Introduction, Old Testament History and Revelation, Life and Teachings of Christ, History of Apostolic Church, Pauline Epistles, Christian Theology, Practical Theology, Ethics, Church History, New Testament Greek I, II, III and Hebrew I. It will be observed from these facts that this Department functions as a well-developed Bible School and that Mennonites are provided with first grade Bible school privileges.

In order to increase the service of the School to the Church a new feature was added to the Special Bible Term last year and another new feature for this year. They are respectively the Minister's Week and the Christian Life Conference. The former fills a very definite need among the ministry. How much did our ministering brethren appreciate the rich feasts that were afforded! We hold similar hopes for the Christian Life Conference. In this conference the young Christian and his needs are held directly in view. What is the Christian life? What change takes place at conversion? How should a Christian live in this sinful world and how can he keep himself unspotted from the world? What literature is fit for a Christian to read? How will a Christian conduct himself in his social life? These and many other questions are asked by the earnest young Christian and such a meeting as this attempts to answer them.

The Junior College offers two years of work in the following Departments: Bible, Biology, Chemistry, Education, and Psychology, English, German, History and Social Service, Latin, Mathematics, and Philosophy. During the current year one hundred forty-five semester hours of college work are being conducted.

On account of the fact that the secondary work of our school is not primarily designed for college preparation but serves as a finishing course for the majority of those in this Department, we have changed its name from academy to high school. During the present year twenty-four units of work are being taught. Since seventeen units are required for graduation it will be seen that opportunity is hereby afforded for electing studies from a large group of courses. In all departments quite a number of the elective courses are offered in alternate years, thus rendering still further the opportunities for choice.

Definite steps are being taken toward providing systematic physical training for the students. Recreational activities are necessary to keep them in good health and to correct their faulty living habits. For several years a minimum of two hours per week of physical exercise, in the form of working, hiking, playing, was required of every student. During the present year one of these hours is being supervised by members of the Faculty in which definite physical training is given or the play is directed. It is our plan to provide for a still more systematic direction of physical exercise among the students.

We are planning to introduce the discipline of Domestic Science in the High School for next year. For this purpose the little frame cottage south of the Main Building is to be fitted up with suitable equipment. A long-felt need will thus be supplied.

Religious Life

We believe that the greatest point of distinction between a Church School and a State School is found in the religious atmosphere that pervades the former. The right for a Church School to exist is based on the principle that God's people and not the State should educate the youth of the Church. A Church School is more than an institution that has Christian teachers. Among the efforts that we have put forth for the religious welfare of the students may be noted the following. Two series of revival meetings are held annually. In these meetings we strive to locate every student. If the student is not a Christian, an effort is made to lead him to Christ. If the student is not enjoying the full privileges of the Christian life, an attempt is made to uncover hidden sin, lead to a full and complete surrender to God, and thus bring about a close and vital fellowship with Him. In addition to the Bible classes in which students gain a knowledge of the Scriptures, an effort is being made in various public meetings to indoctrinate the students. True missionary endeavor is fostered in the weekly meetings of the Mission Prayer circle, the biennial Mission Day Programs, the mission study classes, and the practical opportunities afforded in the prison services, cottage meetings, mountain Sunday schools, and the like.

As part of the religious work of the School effective discipline occupies a critical place. Unlike the State school which considers the student merely as a law breaker, the Church school regards a transgressor from the angle of his relationship to God. His Christian experience thus becomes the basis upon which a student is disciplined. What State school is concerned primarily with the spiritual status of its students? We are greatly desirous that the Church may appreciate this fundamental difference between the education conducted by the Church and that conducted by the State.

Eastern Mennonite School

The Bible Correspondence School

Another means of extending the service of the School is through the Bible Correspondence School. In the reorganization of this Department effected last year, plans were made to increase its efficiency. Heretofore the courses were designed with the view of saving labor on the Faculty, and in spite of this weakness, many students found the work very profitable. But very obviously such a policy could not serve the great body of those who might take up Bible study. Accordingly all courses have been revised and reorganized on a twenty-four lesson basis. Each lesson required written work and a final examination concludes the course. Four units of work completed by this method will be credited for a year's work on the Elementary Bible Course. Almost two hundred students are now pursuing one or more courses by this method.

The Financial Problem

Almost every year since the founding of the School the Institution has been able to meet its operating expenses. But we must depend on the Church for funds to meet expansion costs. Before the building of the annex three years ago several thousands of dollars remained on the original debt for the Main Building. Now that the annex is built, and a new chemical laboratory has been equipped in addition to several other changes that became necessary, a total debt of about thirty thousand dollars remains. We trust that the Church will see fit to respond to the efforts used to liquidate the debt. Plans are now under way to solicit funds for this purpose. If the School has been of service to the Church will the Church make it possible for the School to meet its financial obligations?

The News Bulletin

There has been a feeling among the Faculty that the School needs a means of bringing the School and her work before the Church to a greater degree than is afforded by our Church periodicals. To this end the number of bulletins issued by the School will be increased from four to twelve, the new numbers to function as a news bulletin from the School.

May the Church continue to intercede before the Throne for the welfare of her educational institutions.

THE CANADIAN FIELD DURING 1928

C. F. Derstine

The Year 1928 has passed by under the blessings of God. The days, months, and year brought their attendant joys and sorrows, the joys to keep us interested in life, as it unfolds itself to each generation, and the necessary sorrows with their disciplinary lessons, which all of us need.

The year marked the time when the Ontario Mennonite Conference passed the 2000 mark. The Secretary's figures show 2042, the increase during the year being 72. This is a good increase for the size of the Conference, after the usual losses through death, and otherwise are subtracted. However, there is always room for improvement.

The Evangelistic spirit of the Conference is growing. The majority of places had meetings, either in the interest of the brotherhood, or the lost, or both. About 108 decisions were made during the Conference year. Since the meeting of the annual Conference a great many decisions have been made, and the prospects are good for the coming year's report.

The Annual Conference was held at Kitchener, Ontario. With the enlarged assembly room available none needed to be turned away. This is indeed a blessing. Quite frequently the busy farmer could not reach the place in time to get inside. Since Kitchener is surrounded by many congregations, this affords all an opportunity to come when they want to, without the usual experience of standing, or staying outside.

The Sunday School Conference, held at St. Jacob's church, was conducted under a tent to accommodate the large crowds. Outside of the regular home minister Bro. and Sister Lauver contributed valuable services. The enrollment of the Sunday Schools showed an increase, and the interest in this form of Christian service does not seem to have abated.

The Ontario Mennonite Bible School located at Kitchener, Ont., was conducted the first time in its new building last winter. The student body more than appreciated the generosity of the brotherhood in making possible this useful building. This was evident by the attendance, the enrollment being 152, and the high average daily attendance and their expressions. Seven provinces and states had students in attendance. The Course this year has been extended to twelve weeks, and the instructors will be increased by two during the Ministers' Week part of the course. The program given the last evening was, and always is a "Red Letter Day" in the Province. About a thousand people were in attendance. The accommodations of the Church and School Building were more than taxed.

The offering by the United States Mennonite brotherhood, called by a United States brother, "The Canadian Good-Will Offering, by the United States Mennonite Brotherhood" has made a good impression. This offering pays the equipment of the School, the heating, lighting, seating, etc. The Conference and the Kitchener congregation paid the building. The Conference in its spring session will undoubtedly give its own thanks to those across the border and to the home folks.

During the summer the Kitchener, Waterloo, and other surrounding congregations united in a Vacation Bible School. This was held in the Bible School building at Kitchener. The city and the community at large were given the opportunity to attend. The enrollment was 243. The average attendance 203. Eleven teachers gave their service gratis.

The missionary outposts of the Church seem to be making normal progress, although they all experience the same opposition to real Gospel truth, and the full Gospel, as do the other and older congregations. The New York field at Clarence Center has more than reached congregational size, the membership being 115, with Sunday School enrollment at 200. The work at Toronto has been overcoming the handicap of the past handed to the present workers, and the community is showing an increased interest in the work, and the membership has been increased. South Cayuga after nearly closing has been revived, the membership increased, and the work put on its feet.

The congregation at Markham is housed in a new building, better suited for its work. The congregations at Wanner's and Hagey's have their buildings.

The Breslau congregation and three other congregations undertook the support of Bro. Elvin Snyder, missionary to South America. Bro. and Sister Snyder reached Argentina Nov. 16, 1928. Brother Snyder was ordained before sailing. May the blessings of God rest upon their ministry in South America.

The ministry of Brethren Ralph Smucker, Ernest Miller, and Sister Miller was fruitful; their return will be greatly appreciated.

The Amish Mennonite Conference was held at Poole, and large crowds were in attendance. The spirit of the gathering was such that we believe that God was glorified, and the cause advanced. Their congregations seem to be growing. One of the things so much appreciated in Canada is the spirit of good-will in the relations between the two Conferences, each seeking the other's good, and in the end feeling that the cause of Christ is helped. The congregation at Wellesley has erected a new meeting-house. The hearty support of the mission work of the Church by the Amish brethren is worthy of notice. Practically all the traveling missionaries speak at their churches.

The writer has not been to the far western congregations for some time; this accounts for the brevity of the notes. However, we hope to spend two months in this field in 1929, having been invited to assist all the congregations in evangelistic work. This year we understand Bros. John F. Grove, S. C. Yoder, Ralph Smucker, Paul Erb, and Allan Good rendered outside service, and their work was beneficial. The Conference suffered a hard blow in the loss of one of their esteemed Bishops, Norman Stauffer, a real man of God, with the heart of a real bishop. The moving of Bro. E. S. Hallman to Texas makes a vacancy that is keenly felt. This field needs our prayers. Many spiritual and loyal Christians live in these northern and western congregations. God bless them all.

THE GENERAL SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE

By I. W. Royer, General Secretary

The General Sunday School Committee of the Mennonite Church was organized under a constitution by the General Conference in 1915 while in regular session near Archbold, Ohio. According to the constitution the purpose of the committee is to have general oversight of the Sunday-school work of the Church and its duty is to acquaint itself with the various Sunday-school problems of the Church and to devise and execute plans for Sunday-school work, and through its officers report the conditions and progress of the Sunday-school work of the Church as they find it.

The Committee is divided into two bodies: The General Committee which meets every two years in connection with General Conference and reports to General Conference; and the Executive Committee which meets yearly and reports its work to the General Committee. These committees meet in joint session occasionally to review, study, and plan their work.

Much of the work is in coöperation with the Mennonite Publishing House and Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities and the Sunday-school officers of the various conference districts.

The General Committee has appointed a number of subcommittees to study special phases of work that relates to the progress and welfare of the Sunday-school cause. Quite a number of these committeemen are chosen from outside the General Committee. The aim is to have brethren who have church-wide interests at heart and who are qualified for the particular work assigned. Following are the Committees: "Sunday-school Lessons," "Teacher Training Courses," "Literature," "Sunday-school Library," "Sunday-school Record," "Examining Committee for Study Courses," and "Vacation Bible School." In the past years Junior Mission Study courses have been published on South America and India. A booklet with appropriate selections for Easter, Christmas, and Children's Day programs has been prepared by our editors and published. The Vacation Bible School Committee upon request worked out a suggestive course of study with helps for teachers which was used in a number of Vacation Bible Schools this year and which was accorded favorable recognition. There is a growing interest in our church in this line of Christian education. Two years ago eight schools were reported and the past year eighteen.

The General Mission Board and the Sunday School Committee, jointly, prepare, publish, and distribute, annually, two booklets, one for Easter Season ond the other for Missionary Day, the third Sunday in November. These booklets are full of up-to-date missionary facts with suggestive programs for the above-named occasions. The purpose of this is to bring missionary information to our boys and girls and to get them interested in the mission work of the Church. The Easter Season is a very fitting time for the Sunday schools to encourage the Quarter Investment Fund and Savings Fund as promoted by the Mission Board. Missionary Day has proved to be a suitable time for the boys and girls to bring in their earnings and savings. Our reports show that one hundred and sixty-three Sunday schools used either the Investment Fund or Savings Fund, and one hundred and forty-seven Sunday schools observed Missionary Day. Missionary interest and activity among the boys and girls in our Sunday schools has been showing a gradual increase from year to year.

Another feature of the Committee's work has been to encourage more Bible reading among our Sunday-school pupils and in our homes. Our reports show that less than five per-cent of our people have read the entire Bible. About four per-cent of our homes report having family worship. Can our Sunday schools put on an urge for more Bible reading in our homes!

The Record Committee prepares, annually, blanks which are sent out to the district Sunday-school officers who distribute them to the Sunday schools in their conference districts to be filled out, and then collect the same for a report to their conferences. The conference reports are then sent to the General Sunday School Secretary who works out a summary report. It has been difficult to get accurate and complete reports because so many Sunday schools have not kept any record and several district conferences have no one appointed to encourage and look after this work. Our Publishing House has a full supply of Sunday-school and class record books which our Committee recommends as practical and efficient. Much improvement has been made in the past few years in keeping records and sending in fuller reports. Ten conference districts report regularly through secretaries who have been appointed or elected for this work. Our aim for next year is to have a report from every conference district and report the same at next General Conference. These reports are of great value to the Sunday School Committee as a basis of study to learn the conditions of the field and where to place the emphasis in their labors; they also bring information that is of interest to the people in general and give material for our historical records.

The report for the past year gives 229 Sunday schools under the General Conference with an enrollment of 33,899, and a teaching force of 2,703. India and South America Missions report 89 Sunday schools with 2,449 enrolled and 245 teachers. Our Eastern Conferences report 79 schools with an enrollment of 16,613, and 1,380 teachers. The total number of schools is 397; enrollment 52,961; teachers 4,328. Think of this Sunday school multitude—"Give ye them to eat." Pray for these teachers as they "Break the Bread of Life." Let us not neglect to remember our Sunday-school editors and our Publishing House workers as they send out our Sunday-school literature from week to week and quarter to quarter, amounting to more than all our other church literature combined.

Again, let me state that the work of the General Sunday School Committee is largely to study the conditions and needs in our Sunday-school work and coöperate with the various church institutions and organizations in promoting and strengthening the work of the Church. To this end the Committee would labor earnestly and efficiently. Pray that the Holy Spirit may guide and guard in all this work.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETINGS

By N. E. Miller

History and Name

Young people's meetings have been held in the Mennonite Church for about thirty-five years. They have come into such general use that practically every congregation of our church to-day has a young people's meeting.

Various names have been applied to these meetings. The present name does not fully designate the meeting and its purpose, as the meeting is for old and young, neither does the name set forth the nature of the meeting, which might or might not be of a spiritual nature and could in either case be called a "young people's" meeting. However the name is suggestive in that the meeting is primarily to meet the needs of our young people.

Organization

The general central organization is a Committee of five brethren appointed biennially by the Mennonite General Conference. These brethren meet annually to outline the work for the coming year. Effort is made that each member of the committee be present, which is not always accomplished.

Local organizations may vary as circumstances in the congregations may require for the best work. In most places a committee, consisting of a general leader or superintendent and two assistants to oversee and arrange the work, is sufficient organization for a good young people's meeting. The general leader and assistants may prepare each program complete or may simply appoint a leader whose duty it will be to arrange the program. Pastors should appreciate the opportunity of keeping in touch with this phase of church work by showing a willingness to sit with the local committee when arranging the work and by interested silence or an occasional suggestion be helpful to the committee. The committee as well as all committees for church work should proceed in coöperation with the pastor of the congregation.

Purpose

Several purposes of this form of church work may be mentioned.

1. More Bible Knowledge.

There is power in the Word. It is seed that will not lie continuously dormant in the human heart and mind. These meetings have in the past been called "Bible Meetings" or "Bible Readings." This thought should continue. The Bible should be the textbook of information and authority. Topics should be discussed from a Bible viewpoint. "A vision of their own heart" may prove positively destructive but a revelation of God will give true viewpoints and standards of conduct.

2. Discussion of life problems in relation to spiritual life.

We are living in human bodies, having "this treasure in earthen vessels." We are surrounded by earthly things and come in touch with earthly experiences, influences, and propositions. It is a rightful work of the young people's meetings to discuss spiritual dangers and safeguards of everyday life and to come to Scriptural conclusions regarding earthly situations.

3. The salvation of the lost.

The young people's meetings should be evangelistic and missionary. There should be topics and meetings that have a special effect upon the unsaved of the community. Each meeting should be of a nature that moves to thoughts of God and soul interests. The young people's meeting may be missionary by having mission programs, sending mission offerings, giving practical help to needy of the community, holding cottage meetings, and arranging for groups to visit hospitals and jails.

4. The upbuilding of believers.

The young people's meeting may be one of the means of continuing the prayers and personal interest in converts which were shown them at the time of conversion. Through the young people's meeting there may be feeding of both lambs and sheep.

5. Providing a means of activity for believers.

It is God's plan that "your sons and your daughters shall prophesy." Our regular preaching services and the Sunday school are not so well suited for giving the opportunity to every brother and sister of speaking "to edification, and exhortation, and comfort." This does not advocate that our sisters shall serve in official capacity of authority in an assembly of brethren and sisters which we are admonished against in the Word. The Scriptural order would be against having women serve as general leaders or leaders of meetings of brethren and sisters. The standard set forth in the Word is that women do not "teach nor usurp authority over the man," but rather that the aged women "teach the young women."

Methods of Conducting Meetings

One of the earlier methods was for a brother to give teaching on a Bible subject by means of outlines and references similar to our Bible Conference work of the present time. This method could, I think, be used to advantage at times now. Another method is for the leader to teach from a portion of Scripture similar to teaching a Sunday-school class. The method which is probably most generally used is to make assignments on the subject to a number of speakers.

There is another method which has been used in several places with encouraging results: It is somewhat like this: Select a subject of general interest, doctrinal subjects are good, as for example, Nonresistance, Christian Separation, etc. Appoint an experienced leader and two experienced speakers who shall briefly introduce the subject in a general way but not at this time discuss the details of the subject. Appoint about ten or twelve "questioners," each of these questioners to be prepared to ask a question on the subject. These questions are to be answered by one or other of the two speakers who introduced the general subject. Also appoint an "assistant to answer questions" to whom the speakers may refer any question upon which they desire help. This assistant should be a brother of ability, possibly one of the ministers. In this way the speakers need not be the most experienced and still not be unduly embarrassed by hard questions.

After the questioners have asked their questions the entire audience may be given the privilege to ask questions and to take part in the discussion. The questioners may include experienced or inexperienced. The method gives opportunity to use some one who would hesitate to attempt to give an address, possibly some grandfather who has never before had any active part in the meeting.

The meetings of a regular nature may be interspersed by an occasional meeting of this nature for instance once every four or six weeks. This method is not original with the writer but he has seen it used in several places.

Work of the Topics Committee

We are responsible to show ourselves "approved unto God." One of the first steps in our work when we meet is to appeal to the Lord in behalf of our task. As a guide in arranging the topics for the year we have a general division of the different types of topics to be selected, as for example: Doctrinal, Christian Life, Book Study, Missions, Junior and Seasonal. We have a responsibility to the body of believers to be served by these topics. Before the topics are sent forth to the congregations, they are corrected, revised or passed upon by the Publishing Committee of the Publication Board. Will you please help us in this task by sending us suggestions:

1. As to what improvement can be made in the general nature of the topics.
2. As to whether the topics are Scripturally balanced in variety.
3. As to what phases of truth should have especial emphasis.
4. By writing out a list of suggestive questions.

Please send your suggestions to Bro. J. R. Shank, Carver, Mo., Secretary, Bro. John Horst, Scottdale, Pa., or to any member of the Topics Committee.

RECENT AND FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

By John L. Horst

The reader will notice that two classes of publications are mentioned in this title. Not all of the recent books that are mentioned herein were published during the past year, some were published the preceding year, but they enjoyed a heavy sale during the year that is just past. Some of the forthcoming books are nearly ready to be printed and will be in circulation before many months, and most of them will probably be in print before the year is over. The list that follows contains the most important recent and forthcoming publications sponsored by the Mennonite Publication Board, as well as a few others whose publication is taken care of otherwise.

Church Hymnal.— Deliveries for this new book of church music were begun in June, 1927. So great has been the demand that the third edition, making 35,000, is being printed. The publication of this book was authorized by Mennonite General Conference, and it was compiled by committees appointed by that body. It contains 536 pages and 657 hymns, and bids fair to be one of the best sellers that has ever been published by our people. The demand for it is well merited as an examination of the hymns which it contains will show.

Junior India, by J. A. Ressler. This book of 144 pages came off the press in November, 1927. It is designed for use in Junior mission study classes, but makes interesting reading for all classes of people. It is written partly in story form, using for a skeleton a trip to the Mennonite Mission in India by the author, who was himself the founder of this work.

Mennonite History, by Daniel Kauffman. This is a small book of 147 pages which was published in December, 1927. It is designed for use as a textbook in our short-term Bible schools, but it is written in a readable style that commends it for use in the home. It gives the history of the Christian Church before the Reformation and the Mennonite Church since that time in a concise form that will be appreciated by people who do not care to read the mass of detail found in larger books.

Smaller Books that made their appearance during the summer of 1927 were Principles of Nonresistance as Held by the Mennonite Church, and Symposium on War, both by John Horsch and published under the auspices of the Mennonite Peace Problems Committee. Both are important contributions to the literature of the Mennonite Church. Another booklet that came off the press in December, 1927, was Recitations for Young Folks which was compiled under the direction of the General Sunday School Committee. The same committee also sponsored the publication of a Summer Bible School Manual, which was offered to the public in May, 1928.

Doctrines of the Bible, by Daniel Kauffman and D. H. Bender. This is a comprehensive work that was published in June, 1928. It treats analytically of all the great doctrines of the Bible, but is a readable book for all classes of people. It is especially valuable as a study book for the distinctive doctrines for which the Mennonite Church stands and which are neglected by many denominations. The first edition of 2500 is already exhausted and a second edition of similar size is about to be printed at the time of the publication of the Year Book. The book is a mine of Biblical information and is written in a simple style, avoiding abstruse theological terms, which makes it easy reading for all. It justly deserves the favor with which it has been received by our people. It contains 640 pages.

Poems for Our Boys and Girls No. II, gathered by Lina Z. Ressler. This book of 304 pages made its appearance in December, 1928, and is a sequel to Book No. I which had a wide sale, but is now out of print. The poems are classified according to different seasonal events and under topical heads such as God, Prayer, Missions, etc., and is valuable for use for workers with children, as well as in the home where both parents and children will enjoy its messages.

Bible Stories for Children, by Ella Zook. The type for this book is set and it will probably appear early in 1929. There are twenty-five Old Testament stories, and the same number from the New Testament. The stories are written in simple language and the book should fill a definite place in the home and in Bible school work. Workers in Vacation Bible schools should find this a helpful book.

Songs of Cheer for Children.—This is a new book of songs for Primaries and Juniors and it is hoped that it will fill a long-felt need. It will contain approximately 150 songs and the manuscript has been prepared by a committee appointed by General Conference. The plate makers have already begun their work at this writing and the book should be ready for delivery some time during the present year.

Feeding the Hungry.—This is a story of the work of the Mennonite Central Committee in its efforts to save the sufferers of the great Russian Famine from starvation. The book is already in type and should be off the press within the next few months. It will contain over 400 pages and over 100 illustrations. It tells in an interesting way the story of the sufferings caused by the famine and the help that was brought to those in need through the efforts of the Mennonites of America. P. C. Hiebert and Orie O. Miller are the editors of the book. This book is being published by the Mennonite Central Committee.

True Life Stories, by Oscar Burkholder. This will be, as its name implies, a book of true stories taken from life. These stories appeared in the Youth's Christian Companion over a period of years and will now be printed in permanent form. The manuscript is ready for the printers and this interesting volume will likely be ready for the readers some time during the current year. This book will be especially appealing to youthful readers, but it will likely be eagerly read by older ones as well.

Nonresistance in Practice, by J. S. Hartzler. This is in manuscript form and has been prepared at the suggestion of the Peace Problems Committee. It is a short, concise statement as to the workings of nonresistance when put into practice during both war and peace and in everyday life. It will probably be published some time during the present year.

Some other books that are in course of preparation, but of which we can make no definite announcements, are Character Chats with Girls, A Companion volume for boys, and Scripture Imagery, the last named to consist of present-day stories and pictures from Palestine, which illustrate Bible narratives.

The foregoing resume of the work of the Mennonite Publishing House in regard to the publication of books for a period of approximately two years will give our readers some idea of what is being done by this institution besides the work of publishing the regular periodicals.

RELIGIOUS ANARCHY

This is how a writer in the Bible Champion characterizes it, and he is right. He is speaking of an editorial in the Unitarian organ, the Christian Register, of Boston, in which the editor declared that he would give his soul in the conflict for three great principles. What were they?

1. Absolute freedom of private judgment.

2. Abolishment of all external authority, whether in a person, the Bible or the church.

3. Authority to reside within the individual's own soul.

The Champion may well ask, "How long would a government last if founded on such principles? The madman who proposes them is a minister, think of it! Although a Unitarian, he is nevertheless a brother in thought to the Episcopalian quoted in "The Limit," and the two together illustrate the extent to which the evolutionary hypothesis has carried the professing church. Of course, when the church abolishes both her own authority and that of the Bible on which her authority rests, she has not only committed suicide herself, but left no other alternative for the state. Hence the reason for the prognostication of former Governor Lowden in the editorial, "Democracy a Failure."

TAKE TIME TO LIVE

Take time to live;
The world has much to give,
Of faith and hope and love:
Of faith that life is good,
That human brotherhood
Shall no illusion prove;
Of hope that future years
Shall bring the best, in spite
Of those whose darkened sight
Would stir our doubts and fears;
Of love, that makes of life,
With all its griefs, a song;
A friend, of conquered wrong;
A symphony, of strife.
Take time to live,
Nor to vain mammon give
Your fruitful years.

Take time to live;
Of sweet content; of joy
The world has much to give
At duty bravely done;
Of hope, that every sun
Shall bring more fair employ.
Take time to live,
For life has much to give,
Despite the cynic's sneer
That all's forever wrong;
There's much that calls for song!
To fate lend not your ear.
Take time to live:
The world has much to give.

A CHURCH "UNDER THE CROSS"

Persecution among the Nonresistant Brethren in the Sixteenth Century

By John Horsch

The Great Chronicle of the Hutterian Brethren (a branch of the Mennonite Church) contains a list of 2173 brethren and sisters who gave their lives for the sake of their faith, and mentions the places of their execution. This work has also many descriptions of the victorious deaths of the martyrs. On the persecution in Moravia (modern Czecho-Slovakia) and in other countries the chronicler says:

These all were executed with all sorts of torture and death, a new cloud of witnesses which surrounds us, a pillar of fire by night to go before us, confessors of the faith and Christian heroes of the truth of God, men and women, youths and maidens, old and young, ministers and laymen, by whom we see that God has poured out His grace and power in these latter days as well as in the former time.

Some were tortured terribly on the rack so that they were torn apart and died. Some were burned to ashes and powder as heretics. Some were roasted on beams, some torn with red-hot irons, some penned up in houses and burned together. Some were hung on trees, others executed with the sword, torn, and chopped to pieces. Many had gags put in their mouths and tongues tied so that they could not speak, and were thus led to the stake.

What they had confessed with the mouth they also testified with their blood. Like lambs they were led to the slaughter and murdered according to the devil's wish and will, who is a murderer from the beginning. One group of women were cast into the water and then taken out again and asked whether they would recant. Seeing however that they were stubborn, their executioners cast them again into the water and drowned them. Thus Satan raged in the persons of his children.

Some were cast into prisons without the light of day to starve to death. Others died in deep dungeons and cellars among bats and vermin.

Many were fed with bread and water before they were executed, while many were tortured with hunger. Some, who were adjudged too young to be slain, were bound and beaten miserably with rods, as happened to Brother Hans Maendel when he was arrested at Sterzing as a boy. The same happened to Aendle Tuchmacher in Tyrol as a lass of 16 years.

In spite of everything they remained faithful with joy and rejoicing. Nothing could move them from their faith or the love of Christ Jesus our Lord. In them was the word of Christ truly fulfilled when he said: "Ye must be hated by all men." Likewise: "They will put you out of the synagogue, yea, the time will come when those who slay you will think that they do God a service thereby."

Many were promised great gifts and riches should they recant. Others were entreated to utter just a single curse, even a slight curse, and they would be released. This happened to Brother Christian who was executed in Mermesser district in Bavaria, but he preferred rather to suffer the bitterest death.

Many were talked to in wonderful ways, often day and night argued with, with great cunning and cleverness, with many sweet and smooth words, by monks and priests, by Doctors of Theology, with much false witness and testimony, with threats and scolding and mockery, yea, with lies and grievous slanders, but nothing of this moved them or made them falter.

Some sang praises to God while they lay in heavy imprisonment, as though they were in great joy. Some did the same as they were being led to the place of execution and death as though they were going to meet the bridegroom at a wedding, singing joyfully with uplifted voice until it rang. Others stepped to the place of death with a smile on their lips, praising God that they were accounted worthy to die the death of the sincere Christian hero, and would not have preferred even to die a natural death in bed.

Others earnestly admonished the crowds of people who stood about as spectators to repent and be converted. Others, who were arrested suddenly before they had yet received water baptism, hastened to receive the baptism of blood, to be baptized therewith on a living faith for the sake of the truth of God. Yea, many who had never reached the communities or seen a congregation, but had only heard the preaching, stood firm in the faith when they were arrested, and did not let themselves be turned away by fire, water, sword, or executioner.

No human being was able to take away out of their hearts what they had experienced, such zealous lovers of God were they. The fire of God burned within them. They would rather have died the bitterest death, yea, ten deaths than to forsake the truth which they had espoused. They would take nothing in exchange for their faith in Christ, no lordship, no princedom, no kingdom, yea not all the wealth and pleasures of the world, for they had a firm ground and assurance for their faith.

From the shedding of such innocent blood arose Christians everywhere, brothers all, for all this persecution did not take place without fruit. Many were moved thereby to think on their life, and to order their living, thinking, and doing in the light of the future, so many indeed that finally the authorities in many places would no longer execute the martyrs publicly, for instance in Tyrol, but condemned and slew them secretly by night so that none of the people could see, hear, or know of it.

In some places they literally filled the prisons and dungeons with them, as did the Count Palatine of the Rhine. They thought they could dampen and extinguish the fire of God. But the prisoners sang in their prisons and rejoiced so that the enemies outside (who supposed that the prisoners would be fearful) themselves became much more fearful than the prisoners and did not know what to do with them. Many others lay for years on end in dungeon and prison and endured all sorts of pain and torture. Others had holes burned through their cheeks and were then let free.

The rest, who escaped all this, were driven from one land to another, from one town to the next. They had to be like owls and nightbirds who dare not be seen by daylight. Often they had to crawl away secretly into rocks and cliffs, into wild forests, into caves and holes in the earth to save their lives. They were sought by constables and dogs, hunted like birds. All were without guilt, without the least wicked deed, since they neither did nor desired to do any one the least harm or injury.

Everywhere they were cursed and slandered and lied about scandalously as though they had goat-feet and ox-hoofs. It was said of them that they could bring people under their control by giving them to drink from a little flask. Lies were told about them having women in common. They were slandered devilishly as Anabaptists, Garden-Brethren, seducers, sectarians, rioters, fanatics. Everywhere were issued imperial, royal and princely mandates, decrees, and commands against them, commanding that they should no where be suffered or tolerated, nor even sheltered, but should be stamped out and annihilated.

The Story of Steinabrunn

The chronicles of the brethren abound in moving accounts of particular instances of martyrdom and persecution. "No more heroic martyrology exists," says a well-known American historian (A. H. Newman). The following is only one of the many stories of personal martyrdom that could be given. This account is also contained in the Martyrs' Mirror, page 434, English editor.

In the year 1539, on December 6, more than one hundred fifty brethren were seized at Steinabrunn in Austria and imprisoned in Castle Falkenstein. Among them were a number of delegates from the Philippite Congregation who had come for a conference with the Hutterian Brethren. Peter Riedemann, the author of the Confession of Faith of the Hutterians, arrived at Steinabrunn about a week after this to take part in the conference, but found only women and children who were in deep grief because all the men had been incarcerated in Falkenstein. The Hutterian Brethren who were in prison decided to recognize the Philippite Brethren as "true brethren in Christ and in the work of the Kingdom of God so long as they should be willing to hold fast to the Lord Christ for the sake of the testimony and truth of God, no matter in what need and suffering they might be." The Chronicler of the Brethren writes:

King Ferdinand sent his marshal and several Doctors (of theology) and Priests to Falkenstein, with an executioner as their aid (their high priest). In the Christmas holidays they started to break down the imprisoned witnesses for the truth with great cunning, and tortured some on the rack and asked them what their ground and hope was, and where their treasures were. Thereupon they with one accord replied that Christ the Savior alone was their comfort, hope, and dearest treasure, refuge and better portion, through whom they had received the grace and favor of the Father. At that the representatives of the king returned to Vienna. Then the king gave the clergy the authority to deal with the prisoners as they should deem best. Their decision was that since they were worthy of death they should be sent to the galleys to drag out their lives at the galley-benches in suffering and misery.

Thereupon the king's marshal, together with the sheriff, called "Lang Hans," and other horsemen, came to the imprisoned Brethren at Falkenstein. They questioned each brother separately again, but they did not give in, and remained steadfast to the truth. So they chained them together with iron collars and chains, two by two, and led them away.

In the meanwhile many sisters, their fellow pilgrims in the faith, were imprisoned in Castle Falkenstein just as the men were being taken away to the galleys. Some of them were wives of some of the brethren, others were friends and relatives. Together they knelt down to pray the Father, the Almighty God, with earnest intercession, that He should keep and protect them from all evil and wickedness on the sea, and grant them staunch spirits so that they might remain loyal to the truth until death.

After the prayer the sheriff warned them to prepare to leave. Then they began to take leave one of another with breaking heart but with strong encouragement that every one might hold fast loyally to the truth until death. With that each one commended the other to the gracious protection of God, not knowing whether they should ever see one another again in the flesh.

Let each one judge for himself what a serious struggle that was for man and wife to separate and leave small children behind. Yea, truly, flesh and blood could not have borne it. When the parting took place it was so sorrowful that even the royal sheriff and his aides could not keep from weeping.

At that time Hans Fuenfkircher ordered that an inscription should be placed over the entrance to the castle stating that so long as Falkenstein had stood there had never been so many pious people there as then.

Altogether ninety brethren were carried away to the galleys. God in His providence made it possible that during the entire long journey, each morning and evening, each one could offer his prayer to God unmolested. Likewise each one was allowed to comfort and admonish his brethren without fear. Yea, the military escort, the royal officers, often addressed them and urged them not to go through the towns and villages in silence but to testify to their faith in song and speech. So finally they reached the city of Trieste.

But since God always keeps His own in remembrance, even in the direst need, He put it into the hearts of some in the prison to trust the Lord in confident hope that He would provide for them a way of escape. So they counseled together in the fear of God and were thoroughly determined to suffer and die for the sake of the truth rather than to take any part in the godless robber business of the galleys on the sea.

In the twelfth night of their imprisonment in Trieste they escaped. They let themselves down over the city wall by means of the very ropes with which they had been led bound to prison. The greater part of them were able to return with joy and happy heart to the brotherhood in Moravia. But twelve persons were recaptured by the godless pursuit of the royal forces and were handed over to Andrea Doria, the imperial captain, who sent them to the galleys to be used as oarsmen. But the pious folk risked their lives and let themselves be beaten with thongs and prongs before they would put a hand to the oar. It is well to remember that if they remained true to the Lord, they could not have been privileged to enjoy life any longer.

A VITAL QUESTION

You can get a landscape gardener and beautify the banks and plant all the flowers you like on the shores of a foul stream, but the stream is still foul and dangerous. You may use the most delicate colors in painting the cage of a wild beast, but it does not affect his nature; and so it is with man, he is bad at heart. Jesus never prayed for the removal of evil but prayed that His disciples be kept from it (John 17:15).

What ought to be the church's program, reformation or evangelization?—The Camel's Nose.

"Preach Christ and Him crucified."

MY DOORS

(Rev. 3:8, 20)

Before two secret doors I stand:
One, opened by the Master's hand,
  Will lead to paths unknown;
The other, tightly barred and locked,
At which the Saviour long has knocked
  Will yield to me alone.

The door which opens from within
Must swing wide open unto Him
  And give Him entrance free.
Then He'll come in, my life to bless,
In all His winsome loveliness,
  And sup and talk with me.

And through that other door He'll lead
My steps; and all my need
  Will be by Him supplied;
O'er paths of selfless service then
I'll go, to tell my fellow men
  Of Christ, the Crucified.

Lord, grant that grace be given me
To open wide my heart to Thee
  And make Thee welcome there.
Then lead me through the open door
Which none can close forevermore,
  To serve Thee—anywhere.

—S. S. Times.

LIVE YOUR BELIEFS

Doubt your doubts, believe your beliefs, is good counsel to minds tempted to the skeptical. But much better counsel is it to say to them, "Live your beliefs and you will soon drop your doubts." The old Latin word "believe" literally means—transposed—"liveby." Faith in the head only sets us arguing, but faith in the heart and under the feet of resolute action becomes fact, and we believe because we have lived and known the truth.

There is something fine in the literal version of the Greek in Peter's answer to Christ in the sixth chapter of John, "We believe and are sure that Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God." It is but an echo of the Master's own deep philosophy. "If any man will do His will he shall know of the doctrine."—Living Truths.

INVESTMENT and SERVICE

The careful investor is satisfied with a fair margin of profit. His greatest interest lies in the safety of his investment. If such an investment is coupled with an avenue of special service the returns are twofold. The Mennonite Publication Board is offering such an investment. In the erection of the new building accommodating the plant of the Mennonite Publishing House certain liabilities were assumed. The investment has been a blessing to the cause and Church. You are invited to share in it.

ANNUITIES

This form of donation is appealing to many of our people. A certain rate of interest is paid on the donation as long as the donor lives. After death the interest is discontinued and the principal is in the hands of the institution. It provides a safe investment. The interest is paid every six months. No state or inheritance tax can be collected from it. The donor becomes his own administrator of his estate.

The Gospel Herald and Christian Monitor Annuities are being continued. $30.00 pays for the Gospel Herald for a life time. $20.00 pays for the Christian Monitor.

DONATIONS

Further development of the work will be greatly enhanced by the assistance that is given in the form of donations. The possibilities for the spread of Gospel Truths are increasing as the years go by and the printing industry is developed. Millions of pages of printed matter are being circulated thru our present equipment. The possibility of increasing this circulation is ever before us. If you cannot make your donation now, a bequest in your will can easily be arranged. An opportunity for real service in the cause of the Master is open to those who have financial means at their command.

LOANS

Until the present liabilities are cancelled by either of the above forms or through the profits of the work of the Institution the loan department will be open to our people. While the original loans were sufficient to cover all indebtedness, there are constant changes through the calling of these loans made to the House. As these calls are satisfied, they are replaced with other loans. We thus have a sort of banking arrangement. Money is received in any amount not less than $100.00. Thirty days notice is required to withdraw it. The interest is paid annually. Notes are written for one year and automatically renew as the interest is paid.

AMISH MENNONITE CHURCHES.—(CONSERVATIVE)

Nearly all of the congregations here given have organized into a conference, but are not identified with the three annual Amish-Mennonite conferences. Some congregations are still separate from all organized conferences. They generally worship in meeting houses and have Sunday schools. They established and maintain the A. M. Children's Home near Grantsville, Md.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE

Advanced Lesson Quarterly

Adapted to Advanced classes and well-advanced Intermediate classes. The leading features are: Introduction, Daily Readings, Lesson Text, Comments on the Lesson, Illustrations, Questions, Lesson Dictionary, Map and Song. Price: 10 cents a quarter; 35 cents a year; five or more copies, 6 cents a quarter each.

Advanced Lesson Quarterly Leaves

This is the same as the Advanced Lesson Quarterly except that it is so arranged as to have each lesson and comments pertaining thereto on a separate sheet. Each sheet contains four pages. Price: 4 cents a quarter; 15 cents a year.

Junior-Intermediate Lesson Quarterly

Adapted for the Junior and Intermediate classes ranging in age from 9 to 15 years. The lesson text with appropriate comments and general helps. Price: 8 cents a quarter; 30 cents a year; five or more copies, 5 cents a quarter each.

Primary Lesson Quarterly

Arranged to meet the needs of the Primary classes. Price: 7 cents a quarter; 25 cents a year; five or more copies, 3 cents a quarter each.

Teachers' Lesson Quarterly

Contains all the features of the Advanced Quarterly and in addition to this the Lesson Story Briefly told, Teaching Points and Applications, Teacher's Outline, etc. A valuable help for teachers. Price: Single copy, 15 cents a quarter, 50 cents a year; five or more copies, 10 cents a quarter each.

Junior Teacher's Lesson Quarterly

A valuable help to the teachers of the Primary, Junior and Intermediate classes. In connection with the Lesson Text, Comments, etc., additional helps are given for the teacher. Price: 12 cents a quarter; 40 cents a year; five or more copies, 8 cents a quarter each.

German Advanced Lesson Quarterly

A translation of our Advanced Lesson Quarterly, is intended for Advanced classes and well-advanced Intermediate classes. Practical Applications and Treasure Thoughts are given instead of Illustrations as found in the Advanced Lesson Quarterly. Price: 6 cents a quarter; 24 cents a year.

Lesson Picture Cards

On the one side of this card is a picture having the Cook Transforming feature, which permits the card to be folded so as to make two distinct pictures illustrating the different settings of the lesson. On the other side is a short story of the lesson and a few questions and answers. These cards are for the infant class. Price: 3 cents a quarter; 12 cents a year.

Lesson Picture Roll

This is a large roll that may be hung before the class. It has the same pictures that are found on the Lesson Picture Cards and also has the transforming feature. Price: 90 cents a quarter; $3.60 a year.

MENNONITE PERIODICALS

For the Home and Sunday School

Gospel Herald

Official organ of sixteen conferences in the Mennonite Church. A sixteen-page religious weekly devoted to the interests of home and Church with a sixteen-page monthly supplement devoted to the cause of missions, and a sixteen-page quarterly supplement on Christian Doctrine. Its aim is to strengthen the believer, to build up the Christian home, to awaken a greater interest in the work of bringing the whole Gospel to all men. Departments: Doctrinal, Missions, Family Circle, The Sunday School, Our Young People, Miscellaneous, Church News, such as correspondences, field notes, marriages, deaths, etc. Price $2.00 a year.

Christian Monitor

A thirty-two page illustrated monthly magazine for the home. It contains the following departments: Christian Life, Missions, Bible Study, Educational, Young People's Meeting, Sunday School and Current Events. Contains something of interest and value for all members of the family, and is especially intended to meet the needs of young people. Price, $1.00 a year.

Youth's Christian Companion, The

FEEDING THE HUNGRY

RUSSIA FAMINE

In accordance with the announcement made by the Mennonite Central Committee, we are in position to take care of your order for this valuable publication. It will be of more than passing interest to all.

The book has been prepared to give to those who have so nobly supported our relief and famine work a detailed story of what was done with their offerings and its general effect on the beneficiaries. Incidently it may serve to give to the outside world a better understanding and truer conception of the attitude and actions of the American Mennonites during the past ten or more years of strained world-relations.

Note the following general outline of the book: (1) Mennonite relief activities during and after the World War. (2) The Mennonite Central Committee and its official actions. (3) The first essay to enter Russia and the subsequent work in Constantinople. (4) Unsealing the closed doors of the Soviet Republic, Russia. (5) Organizing feeding operations. (6) Visualizing famine conditions and feeding operations. (7) Distributing clothing in Russia. (8) Food and clothing remittances. (9) Reconstruction work in Russia. (10) Facts and figures—statistical reports of the funds received and expended for relief and famine. (11) Personal reminiscences of the field-workers. (12) The personnel of the Mennonite Central Committee. (13) Responses from Russian Brethren. (14) Effects and after-effects of the relief work. (15) Bird's-eye view of Mennonite relief operations and official documents.

It contains more than 100 illustrations which were reproduced from original photos taken by the field workers and others. The illustrations depict the conditions as found by our workers and the effects of our feeding.

It contains about 450 pages. Size 5¾ x 8¼ inches. A large readable type is used. The book is well bound with a special side stamp in gold showing in bold relief a reproduction of a medal presented to the relief workers by the Mennonites in the Ukraine as an appreciation of the work done for them.

ANNOUNCING

OUR NEW SONG BOOK

SONGS of CHEER for CHILDREN

In accordance with the action taken at the 1927 General Conference, the Music Committee in coöperation with the Publishing House officials and its committees has prepared a new song book for our Primary and Junior departments of the Sunday School.

The songs that have been selected comprise three general groups. One of about 75 selections for the Primaries; another of about 50 selections for the Juniors; and another of about 25 selections the most familiar hymns and songs that children should learn to sing.

It will be noticed then that the book contains about 150 selections, and it should not be confused with the generally popular song books for children with only a limited number of songs for the Primaries. This book will also very readily adapt itself to the Intermediates and Adults where there is no organized Children's department.

Most of the songs have the text set with the music. A few appear with the words only. A bold face style of notes and a clear, large face type for the words have been used. It is printed on a durable white paper with the proper finish and weight for a serviceable book. It is printed in shaped notes only.

No necessary time or expense has been spared in the preparation of this book and we feel assured that it will find a place in each of our congregations on its own merits. We invite orders for sample copies as well as the orders for your school. Prices as follows:
